

What can I do with my psychology degree?

Many Psychology alumni continue their education in graduate school. They have earned masters and doctoral degrees in a variety of psychology and psychology-related fields from many well-respected schools. Examples of these advanced programs of study and prestigious institutions include:

ADVANCED PROGRAMS OF STUDY	GRADUATE SCHOOLS
Biopsychology	Arizona State	The College of New Jersey
Clinical Psychology	Columbia	UCLA
Couples and Family Counseling	Drexel	University of Arizona
Education	Duke	University of Connecticut
Forensic Psychology	Emory	University of Georgia
Human Factors	Fordham	University of Indiana
Human Resources Management	George Washington University	University of Minnesota
Information Systems	John Jay College of Criminal Justice	University of N. Carolina, Chapel Hill
Law	Lehigh	University of Pennsylvania
MBA	Michigan State	University of S. Carolina
Medical Programs (MD)	NYU	Virginia Tech
Neuroscience	Purdue
Occupational Therapy	Robert Wood Johnson
Policy, Research and Evaluation	Rutgers
Psychology Measurement	SUNY
Social Psychology

Psychology graduates have gone on to work for many prestigious companies and have been traditionally successful in their quest for challenging and rewarding employment. The following are examples of the companies, agencies and organizations that employ our graduates, as well as sample job titles of both recent and more well-established psychology alumni:

COMPANIES		JOB TITLES
American Cancer Society	New Jersey Transit	Account Manager
Ameriprise Financial Services	Novacare Rehabilitation	Art Therapist
Apex Systems	Novo Nordisk Pharmaceuticals	Clinical Research Coordinator
Bloomberg	Price Waterhouse Coopers	Compensation Analyst
Carrier Clinic	Raritan Bay Mental Health Center	College Professor
Citigroup	Rutgers University	Guidance Counselor
Educational Testing Service	Sanofi-Aventis	Human Resources Manager
Ewing Township Public Schools	South Brunswick Board of Education	Marketing Representative
Hamilton Township Board of Education	The College of New Jersey	Medical Doctor
Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania	Walt Disney World	Occupational Therapist
Johnson and Johnson	Yale	Physical Therapist
Glasko, Rulon, Stock & Seltzer, LLP		Program Manager
MDS Pharma Services		Project Manager
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center		Recruiter
Merrill Lynch		Research Coordinator
Monmouth Medical Center		School Psychologist
		Social Worker
		Speech Language Pathologist
		Statistical Associate
		Systems Analyst
		Teacher
		Teaching Assistant
		Therapist
		Yale Researcher